Meet the founders

Hi, I'm Emyli.

I completed a 100 date research experiment in 2012 while finishing my undergraduate studies at UC Berkeley. Today, I am a writer, researcher, teacher, and unshakeable advocate for love — dedicated to helping my students find an exceptional partner.

Emyli

Hi, I'm Thomas.

15+ years of corporate strategy paired with years of my own research & experiments helped me crack the code for turning professional success into rewarding personal relationships. Eventually, I stole Emyli's heart & ended her 100-Date experiment. Today, I help men & women reach those very same milestones.

Helping 1000+ singles find relationships since 2012

Vision

To change the way people think about dating by using our proprietary dating philosophy, MegaDating.

Mission

To help you find a loving, healthy, and happy relationship that lasts.

Core Values

Love: We seek to foster happy, healthy, and loving relationships.

Hope: We hope to conquer loneliness.

Winning: We train you to win first place in love by attracting your perfect partner.

Experimentation: We view dating as a social experiment.

Our team

Our team includes exceptional dating coaches, mock date experts, a celebrity stylist, a holistic sex & intimacy coach, health & fitness coaches, and conversation trainers who are dedicated to helping you create a happy, healthy, and loving relationship that lasts.
